

2023 Summer Activity Guide – Day Camps and Overnight Camps for CASA kids

Summer is almost here! What better way to spend a week of summer than by attending a summer camp! Registration is now open for all of the camps listed below. There are exciting options for kids of all ages and interests.

*Note: Do not register for camp through the websites. The Support Council has special CASA applications to be completed for the kids and sent back to the Support Council.

Contact Katie@pimacountycasa.org for the application of the camp your child would like to attend. For questions or more information please email Katie or call at 520-808-1450.

Things to consider before signing up your child for camp:

- Is your child ready for an overnight camp? Will they be comfortable being away for a week?
- Transportation is not provided for either day camps or overnight camps. Please set up transportation ahead of time.
- Will the child be taking summer school?
- Are the child and placement going on a vacation this summer?
- Make sure to talk with placement about which week and camp would work best.
- Which camp would best fit your child's interests?
- The child does not need to be enrolled in Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, or the YMCA to attend the summer camps.
