

Summer CAMP

2025 Summer Activity Guide – Day Camps and Overnight Camps for CASA kids

*Note: Youth must have a CASA in Pima County to apply to camp. Applications must be completed by the CASA. The youth's case must be adjudicated in Pima County.

Summer is almost here! What better way to spend a week of summer than by attending a summer camp?

Registration is now open for the camps listed below. There are exciting options for kids of all ages and interests!

If the camp your child is interested in is one of our partnership camps, please contact Lindsey@casasupportcouncilpima.org for an application. For all other camps, please fill out the Special Request form. The Support Council will reimburse up to $350 for camps. After receiving approval, you can register directly through the camp. <https://casasupportcouncilpima.org/special-request/>

For questions or more information please email Lindsey or call 520-808-1450.

Things to consider before signing up your child for camp:

- Is your child ready for an overnight camp? Will they be comfortable being away for a week?
- Transportation is not provided for either day camps or overnight camps. Please set up transportation ahead of time.
- Will the child be attending summer school?
- Are the child and placement going on a vacation this summer?
- Make sure to talk with placement about which week and camp would work best.
- Which camp would best fit your child's interests?
- The child does not need to be enrolled in Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, or the YMCA to attend the summer camps.

Contact Lindsey@casasupportcouncilpima.org for applications to these camps:

*Note: Do not register for the specific camps listed below through the camp websites. The Support Council has partnered with these camps and has special CASA applications to be completed for the kids and sent back to the Support Council.
